Kris's Reflections on 20 Years of Curtain Call Playhouse

As I look back and strive to fit 20 years of thoughts and thank you's into this letter, I smile remembering my accordion file folder that held all of Curtain Call Playhouse's important information... and a typewriter at the Civic Center with a sign "Kris's Desk." Curtain Call Playhouse has come a long way.

Sometimes you get so busy, you forget to stop and "smell the roses" and enjoy the accomplishments. I have so many people to thank, from the first person, my husband Jack, who helped to make this dream come true without realizing what he was getting into. He volunteered to design and build the sets, and he continues to stand with me through the good and the bad. The next person who foolishly asked, "Do you need any help?"- Arlene Arnone Bibbs, my right hand for 10 years. To my favorite fan, my mom, whom I miss dearly.

To the first performers who graced our stages early on...Joel Himmelfarb, Allan Grosman, and Bill Battaglia. To Rusty Ellison who helped Jack. More recently, Gary Solomons, Atar Kishon, Tera Young, Jerry Berger, Bill and Karen Roach, Sy Brin, and Chuck Roeder. Thank you all!

To the special people at cities and venues that first opened their doors to us. And we proudly continue to tour at these venues. Lily Mazurek, Tiffany Lucia, Claudia Genteel, Lynne List, and Tim Tracey and Herb Skolnick in Pompano Beach, where it all started... and to Mark Beaudreau, Mayor Lamar Fisher, Brian Donovan, and Mike Sobel, where it continues.

We have now produced hundreds of shows and children's programs. Thousands of audience members, artists, and children have passed through our doors. Wow! Would I do it again? The heartache, the work, the "no time for a life", let alone a vacation, the stress! Answer: You betch ya! The joy, the friends, the talent, the commitment, you the audience — it's worth it.

Recently I was honored with my name permanently inscribed on a plaque, alongside others, on this very building. I am so proud and grateful. As I continue on this journey in our 21st year, I can only think "We've come a long way, baby." And it would not have happened without the support of many cities, the County, the Board of Directors, and the many performers who have shared their talents with us. With a home-base in Pompano Beach, where I proudly reside, I look forward to the next chapter at this new Cultural Center, and having YOU join us while continuing to tour our shows. I may not have won an Oscar, but I've won something much more.

“I Love You, You’re Perfect, Now Change”

Everything you have ever secretly thought about dating, romance, marriage, lovers, husbands, wives and in-laws, but were afraid to admit.

Prologue — Mariah Chase, Javier Pena, Yasmin Adli, Dino Cirillo, Shafer Ross, and Richard Weinstock

“Why? Cause I’m A Guy” — Javier Pena, Richard Weinstock, Dino Cirillo

“Waiting” — Mariah Chase, Javier Pena, Shafer Ross, Dino Cirillo

“Last of the Red Hot Lovers” Scene — Kris Coffelt, Joel Himmelfarb

Barney Cashman, a middle-aged, married nebbish wants to join the sexual revolution before it is too late. A gentle soul with no experience in adultery, he fails in each. This scene is his final attempt with his best friend’s wife.

“I Love You, You’re Perfect, Now Change”

“He Called Me” — Yasmin Adli, Mariah Chase, Javier Pena, Richard Weinstock, and Dino Cirillo

“Plaza Suite” Scene — Bill Battaglia, Fran Friedman

The wedding’s off when their daughter locks herself in the bathroom and refuses to come out.

“I Love You, You’re Perfect, Now Change” “Bridesmaid” — Shafer Ross

Scene — Satisfaction Guaranteed — Dino Cirillo, Richard Weinstock, Yasmin Adli, and Shafer Ross

“The Lion In Winter” Scene — Kris Coffelt, Gary Solomons

It’s 1183 and royals Henry and his estranged wife Eleanor plot and manipulate against each other in this lively script that was famously adapted into a film starring Katharine Hepburn and Peter O’Toole.

Our Summer Show

Waking Sleeping Beauty

Everyone is invited to the party celebrating the birth of the new princess – everyone, except Mathilda, an oddball fairy notorious for her terrible gifts. When she shows up anyway to present an enchanted spinning wheel, it turns out to be cursed. To be safe, a royal proclamation orders all spinning wheels to be hidden, but when Princess Aurora is eighteen, she finds the cursed spinning wheel, and falls into an enchanted sleep until she's awakened by true love's kiss. A fun look at this fairytale classic.
