1999 Annual Appeal (Membership Fundraising Campaign)
4-panel Brochure

Six months ago...

Michael and his sons suffered the loss of a loving wife and mother to cancer. She was only 38. For several weeks, Michael struggled with his grief and that of his children. He couldn't concentrate on work. He couldn't manage the household, the shopping, or the kids. And he couldn't ease his children's fear of losing him, too. Depression took over their lives.

Finally, Michael's friends intervened. They helped him to realize that he couldn't cope with his problems alone. And he didn't have to.

That's when Michael turned to JFS for help.

Jewish Family Service of Greater Miami

We provide counseling for children, adults and families.

We help them cope with the stresses of daily living.

We offer bereavement counseling and support groups for people like Michael, and children's play therapy for his kids.

Our trained and licensed counselors know how to help when family and friends don't.

Michael and his boys are still saddened by their loss.

But now they understand themselves and their grief a little better.

Michael and his boys are a lot closer now, too.

And they feel strong enough to move on with their lives.

Thanks JFS.

Your gift to the JFS Annual Support Campaign helps us to continue services to Michael and his family, and more than 15,000 others each year.

2000 Inaugural Agency Appeal (Membership Fundraising Campaign after Merger of JFS w/Jewish Vocational Service and Community Council for Jewish Elderly)
4-panel Brochure

... can be so much easier
when faced together.

No one is alone.

However high the mountain ... no matter how rough the path... whether facing fear or despair... there is a helping hand reaching out to all ages within our Jewish community to help meet life's daily challenges and overcome them together.

Jewish Community Services of South Florida.

Jewish Community Services of South Florida is the merger of three distinctive local Jewish agencies that have long been the source of exemplary social services in Miami-Dade County. Formerly known as Community Council For Jewish Elderly (CCJE), Jewish Vocational Service of South Florida (JVS), and Jewish Family Service of Greater Miami (JFS), our new identity combines the best abilities of all three, while strengthening our capacity to efficiently expand existing services and develop innovative new ones to serve the total community.

As we embark on our first year, we will continue to do what our former agencies have done best...provide quality services to help families, children, couples, parents, teens, seniors, frail elderly, the homeless, the disabled, the unemployed, the new immigrant, the abused and neglected, and many others. But we cannot do it alone.

We need your help and support to enrich the future of thousands of troubled individuals each year. A future we can fill with hope and happiness. A future in which those in need can face the challenges of life with someone by their side...someone like you. Please send your gift today.
